To Supt. Cooperan Nat Gallery
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

My aunt
Mrs. Cornelia M. Griffin has the only original portrait of Thos. Nelson,
of York Town, Virginia, signer of the Declaration of American Independdence, Governor of the State of Virginia, and Major General of the American Army. &
The member of Congress
who introduced the Declaration of Independdence on the 4th day of July 1776. This portrait was painted when he was sixteen years old,

by Chamberlain, in London in 1754. The canvas measures about 30 x 40 inches. As a
is an exceptionally good one, though needing
some repair.

My aunt had the misfortune during
the late summer to
lose her residence
at Sherry, by fire;
in her reduced circumstances she is unable to rebuild, as she has not a wall upon which to hang the ~~portrait~~^{it}. I have advised her to offer the portrait for sale, and as a great grandson of Gen. Nelson I prefer that it should be in some such collection as Mr. Coscoran's, where its preservation would be assured. My aunt

is the ~~only~~^{oldest} living grand daughter of Gen. Nelson, & in her old age is
wondering to leave her birth place. She wishes to apply the
towards building a
house, in which she may end her days at the home of her father.
I ask therefore that you will offer the picture to Mr. Coscoran & advise me as to his wishes in

The matter.

Respt'ly &c.

 Sir

Herewith I send circular showing what we are trying to do for the benefit of the present and future generations,

I have thought you may possibly have some duplicate in the art department you would be willing to place in our museum, that would not only add to our collection but serve to remind us of one whose life is so largely devoted to the cultivation of the arts,

Very respectfully yours,
 O. S. Sheldon

No duplicates - send 8 or 10 of the most prominent photos, and say
